

Ursula holds a BMus degree in piano performance from Queen's University, and studied piano pedagogy at the Banff Centre with Dr. Robin Wood and Winifred Wood. Her career has spanned several decades of teaching, collaborative music/accompanying, choral accompanying and composition in Ontario and locally.

In 2010 she moved from Ontario to the Kelowna area, where she currently teaches piano and composition at Kelowna Community Music School. She is the accompanist for Spectrum Singers and Okanagan Festival Singers, and previously for Kelowna Community Chorus, German Liedertafel, and KCMS Youth choir.

Several of her original choral and instrumental compositions have been premiered in Kelowna. Two of her original Inspirational songs have been nominated for Folk Song of the Year at the Canadian Gospel Music Awards.

Ursula enjoys working with students of all ages, nurturing a life long love for music.
